Dear nessie ...

Hey Nessie! Please can you help, I have a load of quests that have a heart next to them. This is stopping me from leveling up and I don't know what to do. I want to be level 19 and am currently level 14 and still not had GHV yet. Thank you.

Hiya friend :) Thanks for your letter :) All this means is that you have quests that require you to build reputation with various factions. If you click on the heart quest it will say who you need to speak with when it is a quest and what faction it is linked with. For example, Baroness, SGEC, this will mean you need to do all the dailies for SGEC. This will then build up your reputation with that "Faction" Once you have got your reputation up to the next level it will stop being a heart quest and turn into an actual quest. It is important for JS and reputation to do all your dailies/quests/races/chores each day. Or as many as you can, paying attention to what day is what "daily day" ie Friday is all the big payers at SGEC. This changes each day. Aim to be admired by all that you can be Good luck! Love and hugs, xx Nessie xx ### meet The editor ...

Hiya! Welcome to the second of our paper :) I hope you enjoyed our first one last week! If you have not had a chance to read it yet, check it out on our website. This week I have been busy training my new Lipi, went with the Black one after much thought. I am really enjoying it. 10/10 Star Stable! Did you get one? If so, which one did you get? Or did you end up with all three haha... I am tempted to be honest ;) Club life has been ace, took a few days off to clear my head due to personal stuff and am back and ready to face the world! HUGE thanks to everyone in JSG for their support and all my friends

Nessie Review

Hi :) This weeks food review takes us to the "Grey Munk" It is located in Valedale village, and since the updated graphics they have taken away some of the seating which is such a shame as we used to have many club events doing our crazy events, and now seating is limited. They have gone for quality over quantity it would seem. The place does look lovely now it has been tidied up and if Valedale champs are on you can watch and cheer them on as they fly past. You don't need rep or quests to enjoy it here. Just need to be star rider to get to VD. Quiet friendly staff. Please note correct spelling is Monk!

xx Nessie xx (Spelling and less seats means less stars awarded)

Racing news ...

Hi,
Now... bright colours. Some love them, some hate them. Personally I love them and for this week I'm going to recommend a surprisingly matching combination of turquoise and pink!

The easy part is the matching new clothes that were brought out recently in the mall: That top, gloves and shoes were literally made for each other. I really do love that top. But filling in the blanks?

Well the top is mainly turquoise so I thought the best complement was for the hat and legwear to match the pink. Nobody wants too much of the same colour after all. The pink knitted hat and city skirt were a perfect match!

As for the horse? Well old Skyspark can't decide if he likes or not it but I thought the blue ocean tack set mixed with the pink Bobcat leg wraps was a good finisher for the look. If you have matching dark pink bows (48sc the pair from mall) even better. So what we end up with is a predominantly turquoise outfit edged in pink. Dig it out for your grey and white horses. I hope you like it as much as I do! :)

After some racing on a MAX Level (Level 15) Lipizzaner, I got the statistics that a Max Level Lipizzaner (Level 15) is about 2 seconds slower than a MAX Level AQH (American Quarter Horse). I used the same clothes/tack for both horses. So while it may be best to keep them to being a Dressage/Showjumping Horse, they can be used as a reliable backup racer. In other news, the dreaded Speed Glitch is still going strong. Some Top Racers are still holding on, bringing down the cheaters where possible, and dominating the boards! Other top racers are not racing till this is fixed and only training. It is still possible to get a Best of Day or two, and even if you don't reach that, keep aiming for a New Personal Best, however small the time you got off is (e.g 0.01 seconds is still great!)

new fashion items for sale ...

Hi my name is Olivia, and I love to shop so this is why I'm looking forward to reviewing this weeks fashion for horse & rider in the mall. Let's begin:

- ◇ BROWN AUTUMN BOOTS-6750...Nice looking boots a bit pricey though but they do have good specs.
- ◇ BLACK AUTUMN BOOTS-4200 again lovely looking & reasonably priced will match with anything, I do prefer the black same specs but a lot cheaper.
- ◇ BLUE CORDUROY JEANS-7350 I love these very smart will also match with most things, perfect for cool autumn evenings good specs but will take a while to save for.
- ◇ ORANGE CORDUROY JEANS-3250 My favourite so cheap I'm definitely getting a pair, as they look great on.
- ◇ BLACK CORDUROY JEANS-8350 nice but considering the price of the other two i wouldn't buy these.
- ◇ BEIGE KNITTED AUTUMN GLOVES-4050 Good looking gloves nice price too will go with most things and i love the white pattern on them.
- ◇ ORANGE KNITTED AUTUMN GLOVES-3250 Quite nice but not keen on them myself maybe it's the colour? good price again though.
- ◇ PURPLE KNITTED CARDIGAN -4300 I love this maybe because I love purple its very stylish with the lovely white going through the middle of it very good specs another one definitely for me!
- ◇ BROWN WOOLEN SWEATER-9750-Quite nice but very expensive I'm sure it will be very warm for the cold winter nights at dino valley though, I'm not a fan of this one.
- ◇ AUTUMN WOOLEN KNITTED SWEATER-4050 Nice warm looking sweater but to be honest not keen on the look of it the only good point is the specs again, I will be walking past this!
- ◇ WHITE AUTUMN CARDIGAN-7100 Now this one is super very professional looking probably this is reflected in the price of being quite expensive well anyway i would buy it without a second thought :)

◇ TURQUOISE KNITTED CARDIGAN-2250 This one is similar to the purple one but much cheaper, super colour this is also on my list to buy:)

◇ BEIGE WOOLEN BEANIE HAT -6350 Nice colour perfect for when you're in the chilly mirror marshes good specs too.

There is no new horse equipment this week but do check out the TIMELESS set from last week all in blue it looks so cool i have them all on my black thoroughbred.

- ◇ SADDLE PAD-4300
- ◇ SADDLE-4050
- ◇ BRIDLE-6250

Anyway hop on the bus and take a look in the mall, while you are there nip into the cafe for a nice drink and snack and you never know you may see me in there too, if you do be sure to say Hi :).

Attitude Athy ...

So my favourite little sister Reb starts going on about being a fashion columnist now and that she can waffle on all day about all the tat she struts about in. So I thought, being the eldest, that it was only fair if I put my own thoughts down on print from time to time as well.

Of course, I won't be dressing like some sort of parrot on the pull to do that. I mean I wouldn't say Reb wore bright clothes but seriously.... I'm surprised she hasn't been grabbed, caged and sent down a mine shaft yet to make sure the air was clear.

So. I'm Athy. I'm 3 days older than Reb and I don't look or act like a Disney Princess. I've been in JSG since day 1, numero uno, the first ever member. More than 18 months now. What have I been up to? Well I had the novelty of star rider there a couple of weeks ago. So I done a few quests, got bored, done a few races, got bored, got a new horse and quite liked it, then my star rider run out and I'm back to writing posts like this. It's ok though. It pays well. Athy don't do things for nothing ;)

Anyway. If you're lucky I might take time out my completely-not-busy-just-really-lazy schedule now than then with a few useful anecdotes or bits of worldly wisdom. I'd have my own 'Ask Athy' page like Nessie but.... Well I think you're starting to figure how that would end.

Need to go anyway. The farrier just got here to sort my Andy. He don't pick his feet up though so I'm off to stand and laugh for half an hour. Have a fun week ;)

Classifieds ...

The staff at Jorvik City Mall require staff. Work for this week only until Wednesday 5th October. It is "Fashion Week" there and they are desperately trying to find people to help set up things backstage in order for the show to go ahead. Only non experienced people may apply as all the previously trained staff are needed in the audience and on call if any of the undergrads need help or advice. Models are required so regardless of if you have helped previously or not, please pop over. No one will be rejected. Raptor is also appearing so be sure to see if he is ok and maybe give his body guards a coffee break. There is plenty of work there so please just drop in.

Undergrads will be paid well with experience and JS. All experienced people are payed with enjoyment and the buzz of watching Fashion Week.

Be sure to have your bus ticket with you :) )

All applicants must be done by Wednesday 5th.

DIY Livery at "Valley of the Hidden Dinosaur"

Please contact Nic direct. In order to have livery there you must have worked hard to have built the shelter and found the water source.

Livery here is cheap and can only be for one horse at a time. No storage is available. Not many transport links, you have a balloon and lift when it works. There is always a warm fire to help you keep warm and Nic is always on guard there to help ensure safety of your horse. There is a couple of shops and plenty of off road riding however the terrain can be a little rough in places. Kalties will also sell various things to you including a lovely Fjord, maybe even a few!

There is plenty of work you can do within the grounds. You can also enjoy the music of Igor, but please do not leave your horse too close to him, he has a funny idea of a menu. However he does serve normal food and drink too.

If you find her there is a vet that can be on call next to the stable, if you have not found her, when you are there looking around to see if it is suitable for your needs. Take a ride to Valley Of The Frozen Mist where you might find her lost and a tad chilled... Not sure how to find it? Take a look at Elvira Dragonnest very clear video on You Tube of how to find it from Valedale Village so nice and easy to follow.

JOLLY SNAILS GUILD is looking for nice, jolly, friendly new members to join the already amazing team. Jolly Snails Guild has been established for over 18 months with no change of ownership and no breaks. We have events 7 days a week—yes you read they right SEVEN events a week. All events are of great variation and all Nessies own inventions :) With new events being invented all the time. As a JSG member you will also be a part owner of 1 acre of moon and can enjoy the fact there is a star in Leo named after the club. These are just a couple of the things Nessie done for the 1 year anniversary. There are many perks in this club including having Star Coins brought by Nessie as prizes for Snail of the Quarter and Year (Year also includes some epic gifts) There is also Snail of the Month which has been happening since April 2016 and includes prizes. These are done on a transparent point scoring system in place. If you would like to be a part of this team, please contact Elvira Dragonnest with the subject "Snails On Sunday" When doing so, please tell a bit about your character, the things you enjoy in the game as this club is about how you will fit in, not numbers. If you message saying "please can I join" Nessie can tell lots about a person in their first letter. Thanks!
